Commissioner for Patents
Box Patent Application
Washington, D.C. 20231 - USA

Dear Sir,

1) This is a copy of Correspondence that was mailed to the USPTO on November 14, 2001.

This correspondence was sent from Paris by first class certified mail with acknowledgement receipt, as evidenced by the (French) Certificate of mailing enclosed herewith.

The acknowledgement receipt of this certified mail was never sent ~~back~~ to me.

I've complained for this non-reception (of the acknowledgement receipt) in the postal office in Paris in January 18, 2002, as evidenced by the Complaint reception letter whose copy is enclosed herewith.

2) Please find enclosed another check (number

J 487227 payable in Bank of New York) on the amount of 420 USD for payment of the filing fee as a small entity.

A previous title of payment in the same amount (by check n° 017921258 of the CITIBANK in Buffalo) sent by the USLS seems neither never been received in the USPTO.

Indeed, the USPTO Customer Service with which I was in contact during several weeks in this matter, wasn't able locating this file, nor the check. (It seems that the events with Anthrax are at the origin.)

A copy of my correspondence with the USPTO Customer Service in this matter is also enclosed.

- 3) Finally, the officer of USPTO is respectfully requested to send me back one of these two checks (if both of them were received in the USPTO), in order to avoid double charging.

Sincerely

Hariv Toléans (Applicant/Inventor)
